

Learn Kung-fu

at the Marshfield kung-fu academy located in Scituate. Professional instruction in four different styles of Chinese kung-fu and classical weaponry. Increase self-confidence and self-control, improve your health and feel good. Evening classes for men and women, separate classes for children ages 8-12 on Saturday morning.

For further information call
Director John Loupos at 659-4275

Obituaries

Private funeral services were held this week for Roy Andrew Hiller, 67, retired manager of the Pilgrim Motel, Norwell. He died Friday at his home.

Born in Janesville, Wis., he had lived in Norwell and Kingston before moving to Cohasset three months ago.

He had attended Janesville and Milwaukee public schools and was a Mason.

He leaves his wife, H. June (Stricker) Hiller of Cohasset, a son, Ronald B. Hiller of Florida; a daughter, Andrea Zahnzinger of Cohasset; three brothers, Donald G. Hiller, Ira S. Hiller and Robert W. Hiller, all of Wisconsin; a sister, Lillian Wunder of Missouri; and two grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements were made by Sparrow Funeral Home of Cohasset and Norwell.

Roy Hiller

Charles Stoddard

A funeral service was held July 27 in Sparrell Funeral Home for Charles Remus Stoddard, 86, of Cohasset, who died at home. He was a retired employee of the town and of which he was a lifelong resident.

He was also a retired fireman for the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad Company.

He was a member of the Norfolk County Retirement Board.

Husband of the late Nellie

Belle (Bates) Stoddard, he leaves four sons, Charles L. Stoddard of Cohasset, Sheldon B. Stoddard of Portsmouth, N.H., Elmer L. Stoddard of Norwell and Daniel W. Stoddard of Palmdale, Calif.; five daughters, E. Lillian Lincoln of New Jersey, Nellie M. Lincoln of Weymouth, Olive P. Morris of Hingham, Mildred N. Salyards of Cohasset, and Hannah E. Sawyers of Chelmsford; 26 grandchildren and 36 great grandchildren.

George Jednick

George Jednick, 49, an architect and designer who worked most recently for Grossman's Company, died Tuesday last week in Cardinal Cushing Hospital, Brockton, after a long illness.

A lifelong resident of Cohasset, he had attended town schools and was a graduate of Wentworth Institute.

He was a member of George

H. Mealey Legion Post and a Korean Conflict Air Force veteran.

He was interested in athletics and held many bowling trophies; played football at Cohasset High School.

A funeral Mass was celebrated in St. Anthony's Church.

Burial was in Woodside Cemetery.

Louise Day

Private memorial services were held Tuesday at the Vedanta Center for Louise (Meister) Day, 84, former dedicated lay sister at the center for 15 years, who died July 27 at Cushing Hospital, Framingham.

Born in Germany, she had lived in Connecticut for most of her life where she attended school.

Mrs. Day was an artist, specializing in floral pieces and lamp shades, and as a horticulturist, had established two gardens while at the Vedanta Center.

She leaves a daughter, Florence Pessoni of East Hampton, Conn.

Hanover Mall Plaza

Is Just a Few Steps Away

See the Magic Bus!
Free shows at noon, 3 & 7 p.m.

These Great Stores are in Hanover Mall Plaza

HIT OR MISS
KOG APPLIANCE CENTER
MILTON FACTORY SHORE
SIESTA SLEEP SHOPS
TECH HIFI
WORLD OF HEALTH SPA

Hanover
Mall
Plaza

Duxbury Childrens Shoppes

934-2611
Hall's Corner
Duxbury Plaza

FAMOUS SEMI ANNUAL CLEARANCE SALE

40% to 50%
OFF ORIGINAL PRICES

Starting at 10:00 a.m. Monday, July 9th
Cash Only

Call Cohasset Mariner At 545-3950

RENT A LIFE STYLE

- Luxury 1 & 2 Bedroom Garden Apartments
- Swimming Pool, Tennis Courts, Playgrounds
- Walk to Shopping
- Right on Boston Bus Line
- Senior Citizen Discount Available
- Rentals from $255

FOX RUN - Route 139 - Marshfield
Resident Manager 837-1103

party

Your shower, wedding, anniversary or any summer party deserves a little TLC. We will take care of all of your needs from the preparation and serving of the stuffed grape leaves, spinach quiche, crabmeat puffs, etc., through to that final clean-up. TLC is a total party service. Judy Crowder, MaryEllen Sinatra, 659-2024/659-7316. Party Specialist

TLC
Two Ladies
& Co